G. Finance Committee submitted a report concerning our Financial State. This includes the number of contributing units and an accounting of monies in escrow accounts, usable assets, gifts and endowments, benevolent assets, designated assets and additional funds to meet the needs of the pastor with regard to housing, continuing education, etc. The report indicates that we cannot afford a full-time pastor, but instead a part-time or shared pastor.

CALLING A PASTOR

Pastor Peter Asplin, representing the Synod, addressed the council regarding the process needed to call a new pastor. Before the Call Committee can meet, the congregation and church council need to decide if the church is going to pursue calling a part-time pastor or a shared pastor. Pastor Asplin explained the differences between the two, including the time commitment, the pros and cons of each, and the salary requirements. The ELCA is in full communion partnership with other denominations including the Presbyterian Church (PCUSA), the Reformed Church in America, The United Church of Christ, the Episcopal church, the Moravian Church and the United Methodist Church so a pastor could be shared with these various churches. He suggested having four “cottage meetings” with small groups of the Good Shepherd congregation to answer questions and determine what the congregation would like to see happen. The process can also be explained in temple talks over a four-week period leading up to the cottage meetings. Pastor Asplin also recommended that the church council address the need for establishing policy regarding both Family and Sabbatical Leave.

OLD BUSINESS

A. The four council members who are eligible to run in January were asked their intentions. Jessica Darragh and Bonnie Altman will be running again while Denny Clawson has decided that he can be of service in other ways and will not re-run. Andy King is “on the fence” and has not yet decided. Joy Stynchula will be filling an open spot until the end of this year and has decided to run again in January.

B. Meeting between Jessica Darragh, Debbie Territ and Dorothy Gesalman regarding kitchen storage and upkeep went well. Bonnie suggested that Personnel and W/ELCA meet again before the end of the year.

C. Jenny asked if we could do something for the neighbor’s children as they just lost their father. Talked about doing a Christmas basket for the kids. Jessica to get involved as a member of the Evangelism Committee.

NEW BUSINESS

A. With the absence of Stewardship, the Finance Secretary is asking for permission to run a pledge drive. Council took a look at the pledge “card” already prepared and decided it should be re-worded. Andrew agreed to re-write to ask people to consider their blessings and what God has given us. Harry Harbaugh volunteered to do a Temple Talk this coming Saturday.

B. Newsletter restructure—Council decided that the council meeting minutes should continue to be printed in the newsletter in a condensed form, that it was Rachel’s discretion to shorten articles submitted for the newsletter and that people should be surveyed as to how they want to receive their newsletter—pick up at the church, read it online or continue to receive it in the mail.

C. Approval of council members for the remainder of the year. Motion made to nominate Joy Stynchula and Dee Salentino to fill the two council openings until the end of this year.

D. Motion made to name the current shed in honor of Bill

Ambrose and Jack Rutter in recognition of their longtime service to Good Shepherd.

E. Advent money to be sent to Lutheran World Relief.

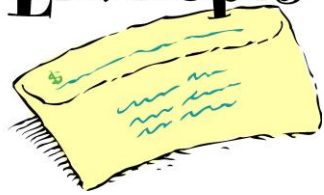

F. Giving envelopes—discussed the large number of envelope boxes never picked up by members this year. Envelopes for 2024 have already been ordered but council determined that Rachel and the Finance Committee should go through the list and look at the giving history. Envelopes will then have to be renumbered.

ADJOURNMENT:

NEXT MEETING is November 20, 2023 and Kathy Wolfe has devotions.

Offering envelopes will be available to be picked up in December. If you do not have envelopes at this time and wish to receive them contact the church office.

Adult Bible Study Continues

The Adult Bible Study on the Four Gospels and Acts continues to meet on the First and Third Sundays of the month, at 9:30 am. The class has been looking at how the Bible came to be, how it is translated, and how the early Christian church agreed on which writings and letters would be included in what we know call the New Testament. In coming classes, the relationship of the four gospels with each other will be discussed, followed by a study of the four gospels, beginning with Mark. See Pastor Ed for more details.

All Saints Day – November 4/5

On All Saints Day, we remember those who have departed from this life, into the next life in Heaven, with Jesus Christ and loved ones who have died in the faith. The heart of our faith is the belief that Jesus died on the cross, as all of us must die. Then, on Easter Sunday, he was raised to new life, to be with his heavenly Father. Jesus' resurrection is a sign, a living witness, that we too shall be resurrected to new life in heaven. The bible gives us only glimpses of what that will be like. I think of it as the Great Surprise. We will be well and whole and glad with the Lord, and with our loved ones. There is a sheet posted in the common area. You are invited to add the names of loved ones who have died, who you wish to be remembered at worship on All Saints Day. Of course, we will recall those members who have died this past year. May they rest in peace with our Lord Jesus.

Pastor Ed

Service of Healing – Thursday, Nov 9, at 7:00 pm

In the three years of his ministry, Jesus brought healing to the many people he encountered – physical, emotional, and spiritual healing. He encouraged us to bring our concerns, our needs, our fears and anxieties, our problems, to God our Father, through prayer.

Pastor Ed will lead a Service of Healing on Thursday, Nov 9, at 7:00 pm. The service is quiet and meditative, encouraging worshippers to reflect and be aware of the presence of God in their lives. The focal point of the service is individual prayer for each person desiring it. Worshippers will come forward and Pastor Ed will pray for them individually, using the prayer requests that the person has written out. There is so much stress and anxiety in the world these days, and in each of us. May God bring healing through this service.

During the Season of Advent, we await the coming of Jesus the child on Christmas Day. At each of the four Sundays of Advent, which begins Dec 2/3, we look forward in anticipation for the story we know so well, the story of Jesus' birth in Bethlehem. We celebrate with Advent hymns of longing and watchfulness.

This year, Christmas Eve, which falls on Sunday, Dec. 24, is also the Fourth Sunday of Advent. Accordingly, the worship schedule for that weekend is below.

Saturday, Dec. 23 5:30 pm – Saturday Evening Service – Advent 4 readings

Sunday, Dec. 24 10:30 am - Sunday Morning Service - Advent 4 readings

4:30 pm – Family Christmas Eve Service

7:30 pm - Evening Christmas Eve Service

Thursday, December 21

7:00 pm

For those of us experiencing loneliness, sadness, and loss...the Christmas season can be difficult. We can feel singled out by the programmed happiness of "the most wonderful time of the year." The recent or impending death of loved ones, dealing with recent separation or divorce, struggling to find employment, facing depression or a family crisis...the holiday season can be a very isolated and dreary time. Every greeting and every song can remind the grief-stricken of how hard life is at this moment. But we are not alone. Many people experience some sadness in this season.

All of us have experienced loss. Please join us in a simple worship service of readings, song, and a reflection of God's presence and hope for us in the midst of what can be a difficult time.

All are welcome to come.

We have seven positions up for election to Congregation Council at our annual meeting in January, 2024. There are 4 three-year terms, 2 two-year terms and 1 one-year term. At the present time we have 2 firm candidates; 1 tentative candidate we need a minimum of 4 candidates. Council members meet once a month, usually the third Monday, and serve as liaison to one of the church committees. To be eligible to run you have to be a confirmed or adult contributing/communing member of Good Shepherd. If you are interested in running please see Andy King, Kathy Wolfe, or inform the office. A slate of candidates will be published in the Bulletin of Reports (deadline mid-December) or you can be nominated from the floor at the meeting in January.

Voting rights – Annual Meeting

There are a few giving units who did not yet contribute to the general fund in 2023 who contributed in 2022. They will not be eligible to vote at our annual meeting in January unless this is rectified.

Annual Meeting will be held Sunday, January 21st following the 10:30AM service in the Social Room. Sandwiches and sides will be provided. Please join us to learn about the status of the church.

Preparing the Way, Committing our Pledge – 2024

Your continued support of Good Shepherd is a very necessary part of our growth as a Church Community. The church leadership is committed to the continued existence and the future growth of Good Shepherd as a place of worship, fellowship, education, social outreach and faith. For our church family to continue to grow we need your participation and support in all facets of stewardship, committing both self and money to our programs.

The Finance Committee is preparing a budget for 2024 to ensure that the programs and worship opportunities at Good Shepherd will continue and increase thru 2024. We would like you to show your financial support by making a pledge for 2024. We have many loyal supporters who have pledged over the years, some regularly increasing their pledge, most maintaining their pledge. I would like to encourage everyone to increase their pledge for 2024 especially if you have not increased it recently. A Call Committee is in place with a goal of hiring a new pastor. The synod has again said we must prove that we are financially able to support a new pastor and your financial support is the best way to show this. Pastor's salary and benefits are budget items and the budget is mainly based on yearly giving of offering. Your participation in worship and programs is the other way to show synod we are a viable congregation. We need your full participation to grow.

Pledge cards are available at the church and one is included in this newsletter. We will formally receive them at the Weekend Services November 11-12. You can give us your commitment card before that by placing it in the offering plate, giving it to the office or mailing it to the church. The Finance Committee will be meeting in November to continue the formulation of the 2024 budget.

Preparing the Way, Committing our Pledge – 2024 Env # _____

Good Shepherd has been blessed to be able to continue its mission not only in our local community but also globally. This is due in no small part to all the time donated by members of the congregation and the community, as well as the monetary giving/donations. We wish to continue this success into the next year to not only maintain our mission but to grow it. Please prayerfully consider your own situation and indicate below your pledge commitment. Pledge cards will be collected Nov 11-12.

In a deepening sense of discipleship and faith, I would like to make the following commitment:

My commitment is $ _____ per Week Month Year

I am not pledging at this time but will continue to support Good Shepherd
